National coach for the Men's National Team.

Are you the person to carry the baton with an incredibly talented men's national team towards the World Cup in August 2026? Our Men's National Team Coach has chosen 2025 to be his last year after leading the men to huge successes such as European Championship gold in 2023, World Cup bronze in 2024 and participation in the World Games 2025.

As a national coach, you have overall responsibility for the team, in close collaboration with the sports director, as well as planning and managing training. In addition, the job includes the following tasks:

- Collaboration with U21 national coach and U21 assistant coach
- Develop an action plan and seasonal plan
- Prepare a list of national team players
- Plan and conduct training sessions
- We are looking for coaches who can dedicate themselves fully to the role from the sidelines - focusing on observation, development and guidance of the players.
- Guidance and follow-up of players on a team and individually
- Assessment of players by attendance at matches in the Danish tournament and national team activities
- Dialogue-based guidance and instruction for club coaches in clubs with national team candidates and organized training.
- Registration for tournaments

As the men's national team coach, you will work closely with the U21 national coach in particular (as well as our Head Coach for the youth teams, who is responsible for the overall talent development of the youth). At the same time, you will have ongoing dialogue and cooperation with the sports director for kayak polo.

You will have a lot of great experiences and travel around both Denmark and Europe in connection with tournaments and other activities. Major tournaments in 2026 will include the ECA European Cup in May and June and the World Cup in Duisburg in September.

Tax-free allowance DKK 10,000

- Guidance and follow-up of players on a team and individually
- Assessment of players by attendance at matches in the Danish tournament and national team activities
- Dialogue-based guidance and instruction for club coaches in clubs with national team candidates and organized training.
- Registration for tournaments

As women's national team coach, you will have an ongoing dialogue and collaboration with the Sports Director and relevant national coaches for kayak polo. You will have a lot of great experiences and travel around both Denmark and Europe in connection with tournaments and other activities. Major tournaments in 2026 will include the ECA European Cup in May and June and the World Cup in Duisburg in September.

Tax-free allowance DKK 10,000
